Love is eternal. There are inspired messages, but they are temporary. There is knowledge, but it will pass. For these gifts are partial; but when what is perfect comes then what is partial will disappear. Meanwhile, these three remain: Faith, Hope, and Love. Capt. Josh Thaxter, Coach Herman, & Capt. Peter Cappers

This year's team held many prospects for success but the team was thwarted by its induction into a league full of New Bedfords and Brocktons. Senior captains Josh Thaxter and Peter Cappers led the team to an emotionally successful season, with the help of Ben Taylor, Ben Lathrop, Darren Bell, Nathan Smalley, and our foreign exchange student, Quentin Wong. The team will always remember the female high jumper from Norwell, the double hills, Free St., and those devastating track workouts, as well as Nathan Smalley's incredible leap of 19 ft. 7 1/4 in. in the pole vault and his tremendous heave of 69 yds. in the hammer throw. HOCKEY CHEERLEADERS

Co-captains: Ariana DelGallo and Tami McCracken
 Cheerleaders: Jen Donovan, Renee Bellew, Cassie Hurley, Amy Jenkins, Chrissy LaBrecque, Clair Rancourt, Andrea Nutter, Linsay Smith, and Susan Lilverio

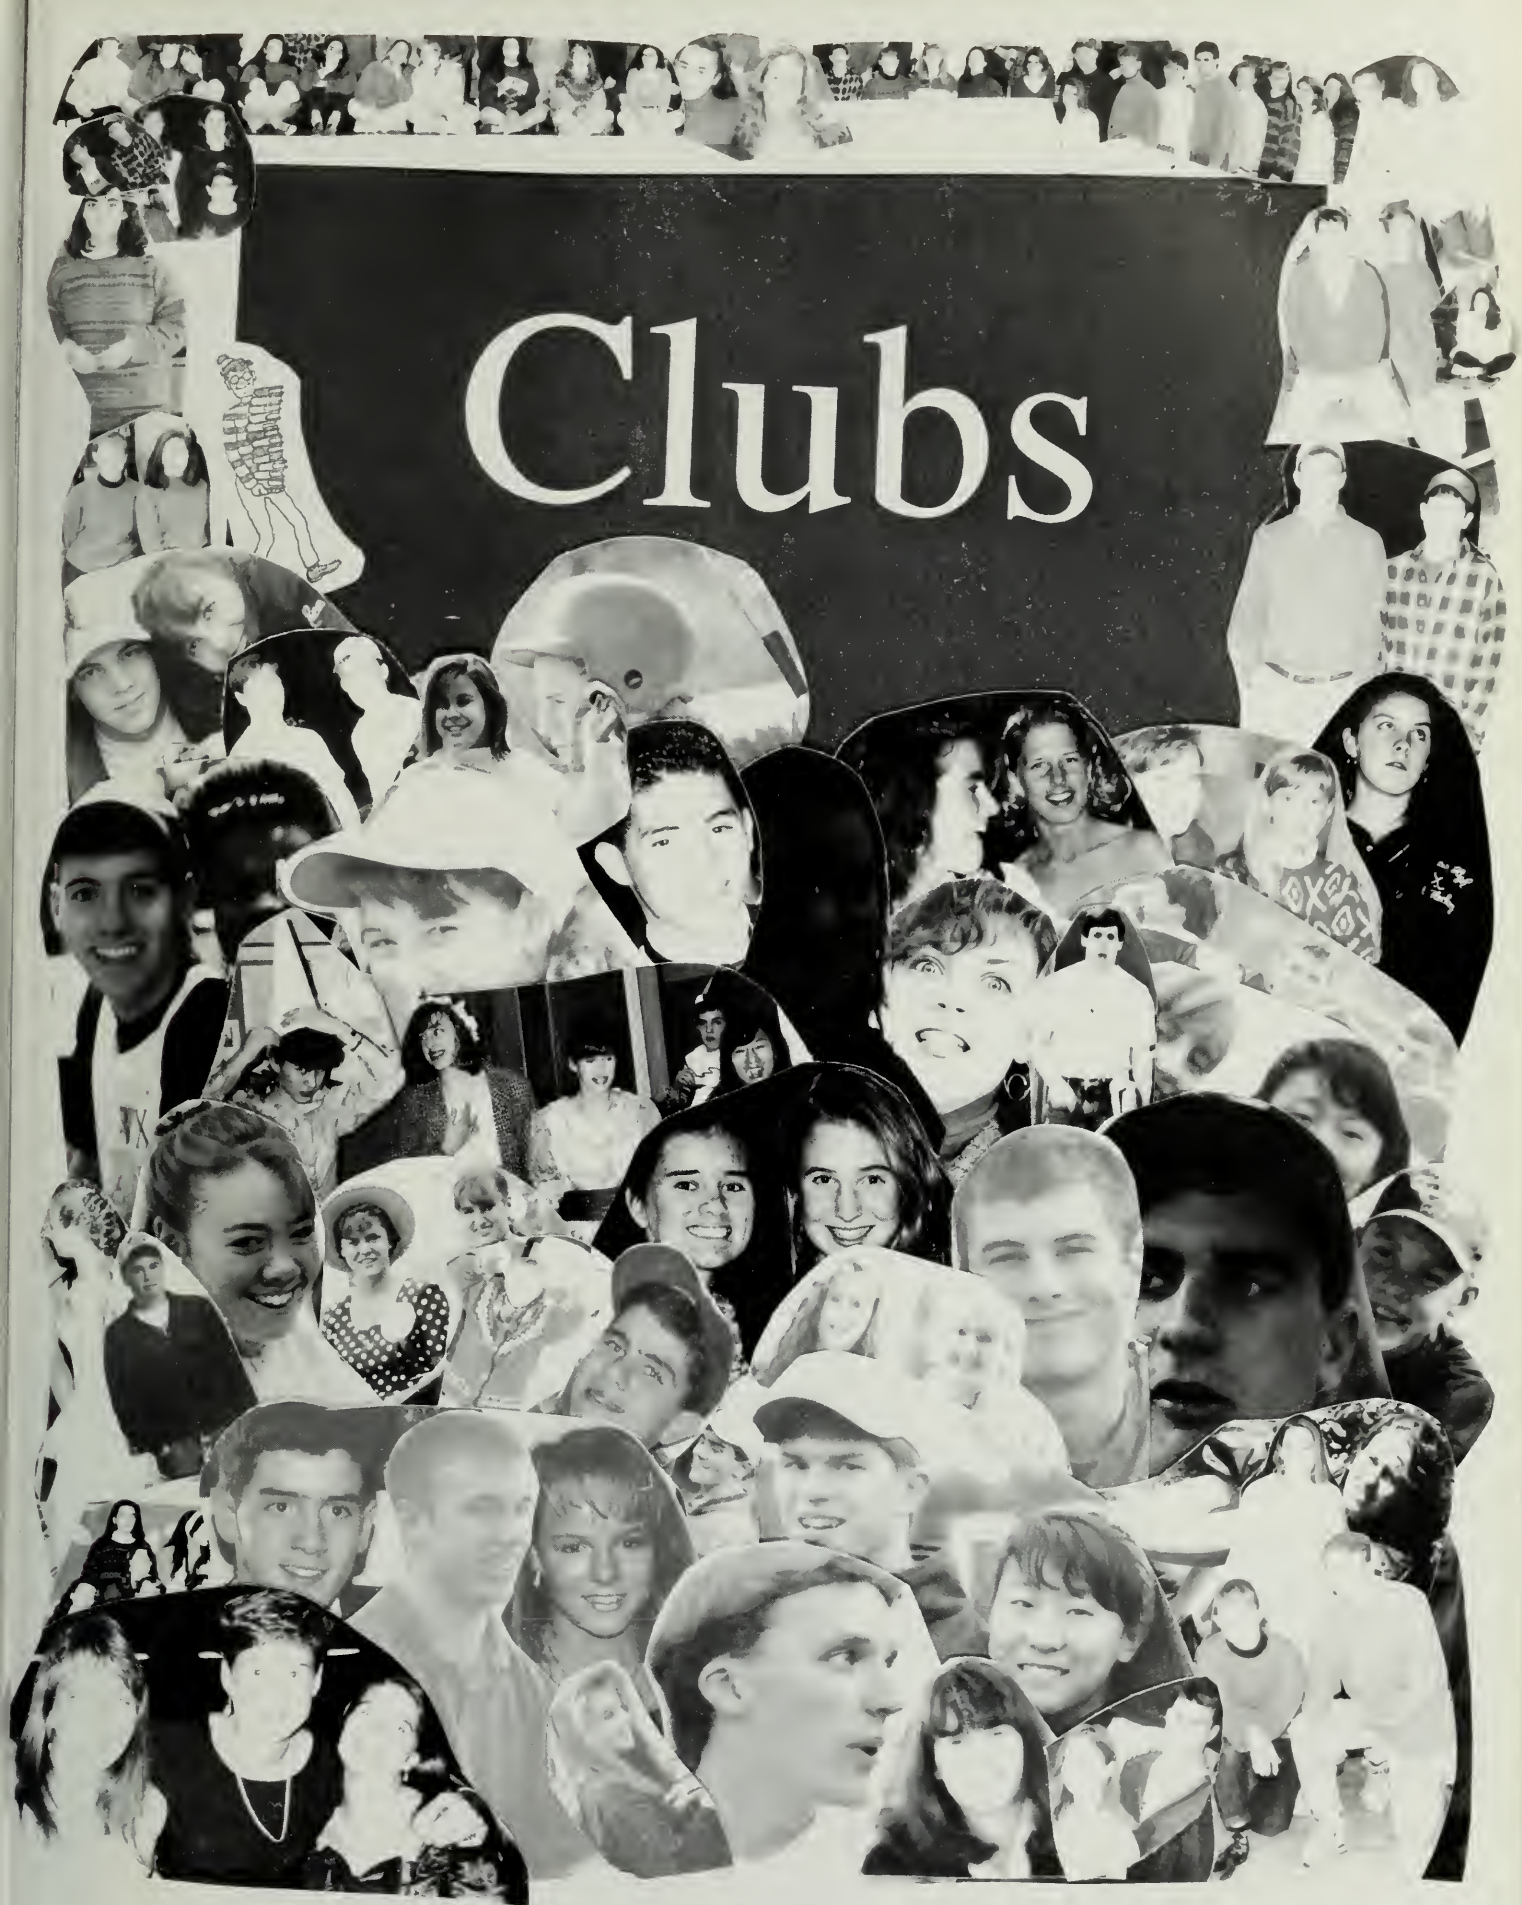

Thanks to our advisor Karen DelGallo and our coach Lisa McCracken. With out you we never would have been able to bring back hockey cheerleading. Good luck to the Hockey Team. We hope we can cheer you on to another championship.

BASKETBALL CHEERLEADERS

The 1992-1993 Varsity Basketball Cheerleading season kicked off to a great start right at tryouts. The twinkie was "Sooo good." Immediately the importance of "SQUEEZE" to the concept "Feel free to get it up" was discovered. There was an occasional problem because with "Hands on hips, Smiles on lips", it was soon possible to "Push it" on command. It was decided to "Do it one more time", then "Higher", despite the NIKE being permanently imprinted on many bodies. As a result it is now known that the tops of the cafeteria lights need to be cleaned. So, Li-Li, the Human Crash Pads, Tee, Fran, Blondie, Red, our Little Rapper, Crelly, Hoopy, Jazz, God, and the Minis, never lose your "After-Glow", we had an Awesome time.

Students for Environmental Action has spent this year writing letters, getting dirty for the environment, and trying to get rid of their debt. This year SEA wrote letters to Representative Gerry Studds concerning the incineration of toxic waste in the US, and the local government of Prince Edward Island, Canada to prevent the construction of a bridge that would carry traffic directly through an endangered bird sanctuary. Members of SEA also made several pilgrimages to the Hingham Landfill and Weymouth Can and Bottle Redemption Center. This year SEA introduced its new slogan: Co-Ed Naked Recycling, Come and Streak Once a Week. The members of SEA would like to thank their new advisors, Mr. Baisden and Mr. Garland, for making this year such a "crushing" success.

The members of Student for Environmental Action are: Lucas Kimball, Alden O'Hare, Eric Juhola, Juliet Friedman, Jill Spear, Amy Kaye, Katie Herzig, Kevin Talbot, Eliza Goodhue, Heather Finlay, Wendy Smith, Jessica Foley, Doug Carpenter, Courtney Jones, Ben Lathrop, Lisa Hawkins, Colleen Carnes, Kristin Immerman, Amy Stevens, Sarah Friedman, Fay Ferency, Gabriel Hartnett.

WHHS-TV produces bi-monthly news shows that cover school events; such as, sports, drama, and club activities. It also gives students an opportunity to produce music video clips and editorials. WHHS-TV is also responsible for producing the daily School Bulletin Board that goes out every weekday afternoon over channel 3-Hinham Cable.

Drama

The Class of '93 has seen many fabulous Musicals- "Broadway to Baghdad", "Anything Goes", "Fiddler on the Roof", and this year's "42nd Street", with seniors Katie Lennon, Ginger Merritt, Kerri Mullen, and Natte Schomer in lead roles. Also, the HHS Drama Club has been all the way to the New England level of the Drama Festival, with entries "Ernie's Incredible Hallucinations", '90 and "Dogg's Hamlet", '91, and while only making it to Semifinals last year with "A Midsummers Night's Dream", we are hopeful about this year's entry, "Fortress", with Kate Gormley, and Joel Ciovacco in lead roles. This year the Spanish Club members participated in a number of activities. They started out in the fall with a Taco Party to welcome new members and plan the tutoring program at Hingham Junior High. During the holiday season the Spanish Club feasted at La Paloma and did a holiday swap. The A.F.S. Club, which has become the largest club in the school, has had an exciting year. Our many activities included a 12 hour dance-a-thon, an international host weekend, a rake for charity, a state exchange with another club from Chicago, and many other events. The year wouldn't have been such a success without the president Rana Freedman, dual vice presidents Jessica Foley and Natalie Flynn, correspondence secretary Jen Matthews, attendance secretary Pat Michaels, public relations Julie Roberts, and treasurer Melissa Carpenter. National Honor Society

The National Honor Society is an organization dedicated to scholarship, leadership, character, and service. Students are nominated by teachers because of their excellence in these areas.

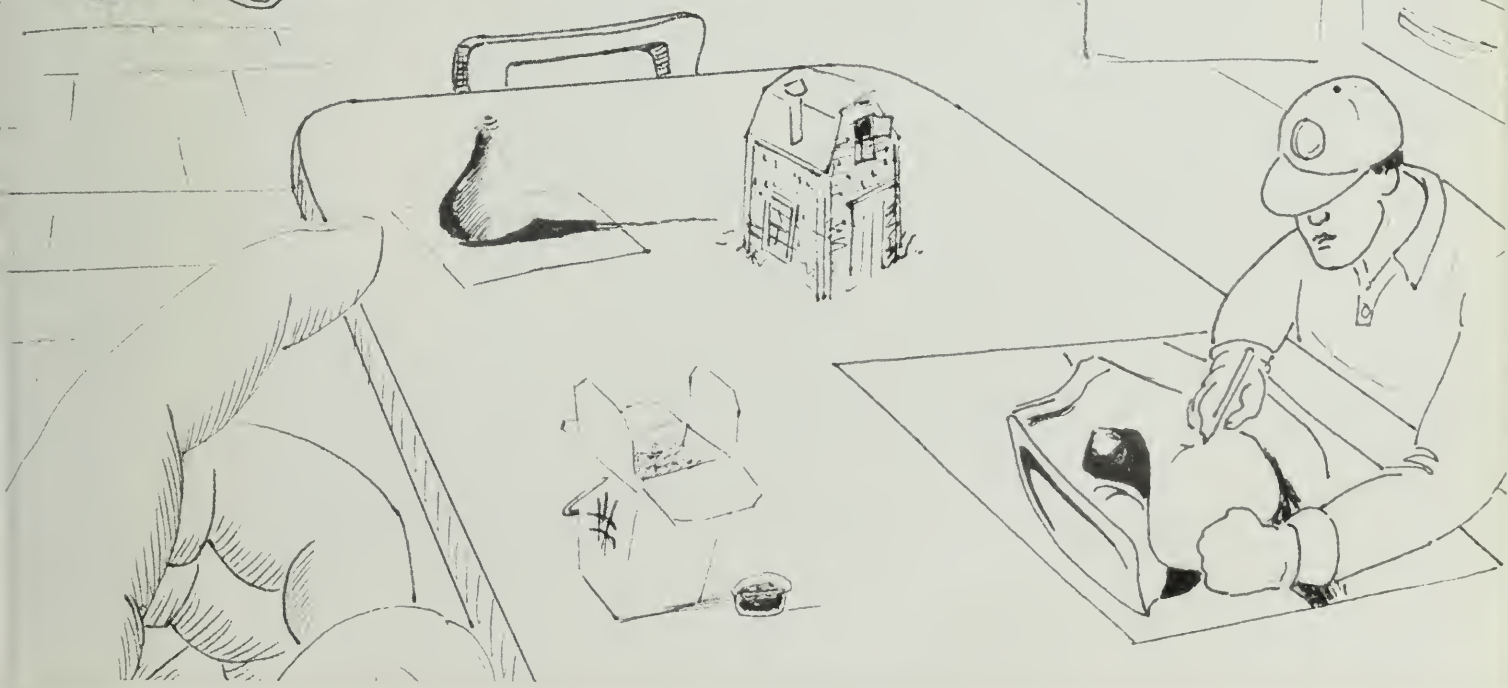

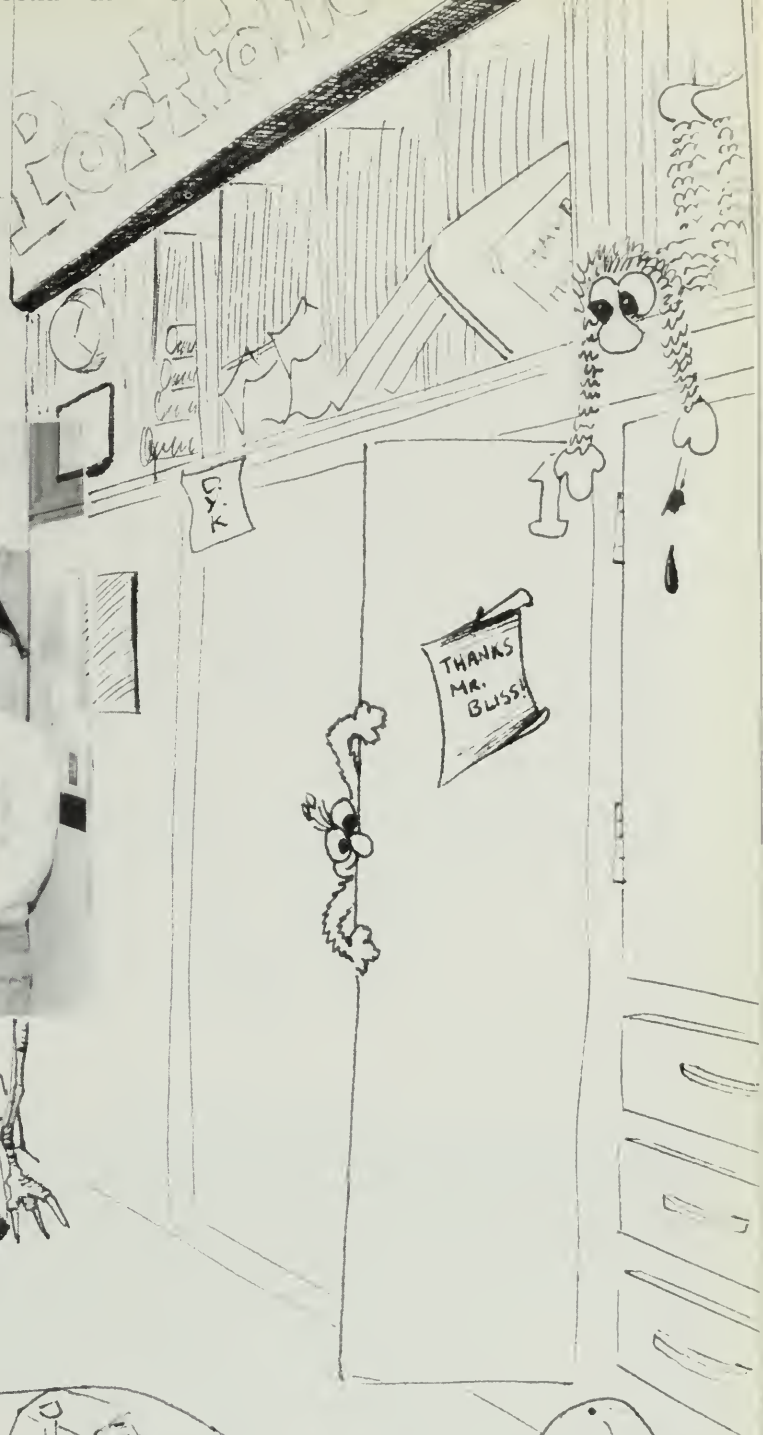

One of the requirements for membership is participation in community service projects. The Honor Society is involved in a school-wide program designed to provide free tutoring to students who need academic assistance. The group served a holiday dinner for homeless families in Hingham. They worked a phone-a-thon for the American Heart Association in late February, and pursued various individual service projects.

The Hingham Chapter of the Honor Society is lead by President Sarah Friedman, Vice President Alon Ferency, Treasurer Laura McAloon, Secretary Jon Craine, and Advisor Dr. Roy Smith.

Chorus Officers

1992-1993 was a successful and enjoyable year for the chorus. We had a lot of fun selling, delivering, and throwing fruit last fall during the annual citrus sale. In December we preformed J.S. Bach's "Magnificat" and Leonard Bernstein's "Chichestra Psalms" to a standing ovation. For a music tour we went to Long Island New York in April. All in all it was a memorable year. Thanks are due to Dr. Cappers for his hard work and dedication.

JAZZ BAND

After being rated sixth in the national wide Big Apple Festival last May, the young but talented Hingham High School Jazz Band had high expectations to live up to. Under the direction of Mr. Roger McClenic, the band played up to its usual high standard of excellence. With the leadership of seniors, Bill Ramsey and Doug Carpenter, the band completed one of its most successful years in history. Although graduating some premiere soloists, band members, Joe Colclough and Mark Osler on trumpet, Bill Ramsey on trombone, Charlie Sayer on drums, Luke Davenport and Grant McCarey on Saxophone, Matt Sonaki on Guitar, and Brendon Tulley on Bass have stepped up and performed spectacularly. In May, the members of the Jazz Band traveled to Washington D.C. where they again competed against other schools. This trip was made possible through the fall fruit sale efforts. There was an overwhelming response of praise and compliments for the Jazz Band from all who listened. The band is entitled a pat on the back and owes Mr. McClenic a big thanks.

ORCHESTRA

The Hingham High School Band had yet another banner year. The Band, under the direction of Mr. Roger McClelltic, was able to complete in a nationally acclaimed Music Festival in Washington D.C. where it won itself numerous awards. Having a strong core of talented seniors, the band was able to perform college level music including The Lincoln Portrait at its annual Ideas of March Concert. With President Bill Ramsey, Vice President Doug Carpenter, Secretary Katie Sayer, Librarian Nancy Canavan, and a strong board of officers, the band was able to live up to its prestigious reputation. The Band also participated in the Oxfam Concert during March which was a fund raiser for needy children. After completion of yet another fruit sale, the band was able to make giant strides in the performing of music. Having members of The Southeast Massachusetts District Honors Band, S.E.M.S.B.A Honors Band, and ALL STATE BAND, the band progressed at a rapid rate. It can be noted that for everyone who is near the Band Room G Period is treated with the most glorious of sounds. We thank Mr. McClelltic and the Hingham High Parents Association for their hard work and dedication.

Senior Executive Board

The executive board consisted of many students who contributed a great deal of time, energy, and ideas to help make the Senior class so successful. Some of our activities included: fund-raisers (candy sales, car wash, concession stand, etc.) planning the Junior Prom, and our biggest project: planning the Senior Prom.

Dear Seniors,

High school is finished and now is the time to look back... and laugh. I hope this yearbook will help you remember HHS and everyone in it. Thanks to all who helped out. Mr. Boddie deserves a great big 'Thanks!'. I don't know how many times I quit this year but I'm glad no one took me seriously. I'm glad I had the chance to play a major part in the production of 'Hingham 93'. Good luck to all of you!

Dear Yearbook Readers,

This year's yearbook is a product of the collaboration of many seniors who have sacrificed hours of their free time in order to make this year's yearbook the best it could be. Although we were all inexperienced, we managed to get the job done on time (well, almost).

Forever in our hearts will be such memorable words as cropper, pica, grease pencil, final-sheets, and my personal favorite, the DEADline. I want to thank all those who spent time mastering these vital yearbook tools. I really appreciated all of the help I could get.

I would also like to thank everyone who donated pictures or wrote something for the yearbook, the photographer guy from McGrath's who took pictures of our sporting events, and the Herff Jones people for publishing our book.

All in all, I hope my stressing out didn't bug anyone too much, and I hope that this yearbook helps the class of '93 remember HHS for years to come.

Sincerely,

Lisa Hawkins, Co-editor of '93 yearbook

Laura McAloon

It's hard to believe four years are over. We have proved again and again that the freshman through senior years at Hingham High can be a blast! Coming together at H.H.S. from both South and Central Junior, we have grown to be a very united and spirited class. The great success of the class of 1993 is partly due to the dedication and leadership of our class advisors Mrs. Tierney and Mrs. Flaherty and the officers: President, Kerri Mullen; Vice-President, Colleen Carnes; Secretary, Megan Brett; and Treasurer, Laura McAloon.

Now, in our senior year, as we are preparing to leave and go our separate ways, the four officers would like to thank the entire class for their help, effort, and support. Good luck in the future, Class of 1993, and keep in touch.

The highlight of our freshman year when we actually tried in school (well, some of us). As you can tell by these pictures, we would do anything for a grade. Right Aaron? Keep your clothes on next time. By the way Chanzo, what is on your head?

THE WONDER YEARS...

the time before high school when we looked up to our teachers... literally. This was when we looked forward to cookies and milk, fighting on the playground was the most stressful part of the day, and our biggest challenge was choosing which lunchbox to carry.

*For you my friend I send this thought,
 I miss you dearly when we're apart.
 We have fun when we're together.
 I hope this fun will last forever.
 Though I may not be back soon,
 I miss your smile that shines like the moon.
 Your comfort cheers me when I am down.
 Your face frees me of the sadness that I've found.
 There are never enough words to say
 How much I love you each and everyday.*

When life is cold,
 And the path is dark,
 I look up to you for
 Warmth and light.

When dreams seem unreachable,
 And answers can't be found,
 I turn to you for encouragement
 And understanding.

When I feel alone,
 And no one is there
 To share with, I soon
 Remember you, my
 Dear friend.

And when the sun breaks
 And everything is new
 And beautiful, I know you
 Are there beside me.

We miss and love you Nicole.
